Serial No.

From -
The Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident
- F.39-40/40 dated 6. March 1941
re Purchase of American securities by the Govt of India.

1 In October 1940 the Government of India issued a notification under the Defence of India Rules requiring owners of American securities to make certain returns to the Reserve Bank of India. At the request of the Residency we also issued a similar notification under th Defence of India Rules, as applied to Mysore.

2 It is now stated that the Government of India are issuing a notification on the 10th March transferring to themselves all such American securities, at prices specified in the notification. It is requested that a similar notification may be issued here also as early thereafter as possible.

3 The prices at which the securities will be transferred has not been given to us but is promised to be sent as early as possible.

4 If approved, the further communication from the Residency sending the prices will be awaited and a notification issued thereafter.

5 Similar action has been taken by us in regard to certain Sterling securities also.
